Dear Families

I hope that you have all been able to enjoy a refreshing half term – or at least some of the lovely weather. It is great to be back for the summer term, which is always a busy and enjoyable one. I hope that you like our new smart field fence. We hope to plant some hedging along it when the autumn comes.

Eardisley Anniversary Celebration

Huge congratulations and thanks go to our very talented choir who sang at the Eardisley village celebratory lunch on Sunday. Jasmine, Olivia, Poppy, Jack, Adam, Cerys, Megan, Grace, Maisie-Lou, Aimée, Josh and Heidi PV, Lottie F, Molly, Harriet P were true stars of the show. I have received a number of letters of thanks and praise for the children – and of course to our very own Mrs Small who leads our singing with such talent.

Values Story Writing Competition

Congratulations to Rachael in Year 6 who submitted a poem in response to the national story writing competition for Values-based Education. The judges were impressed and inspired by the qualities of all the entries. She was runner up in the national competition. She will be receiving a badge and a certificate as well as an invitation to a webinar with Dr Neil Hawkes - and her poem will be published in a book in a few months' time.

Tesco Bags of Help Scheme

If you shop at Tesco, please support Eardisley CE Primary School in July and August by voting for us each time you shop! We are one of the three nominated charities for that scheme and any money we are awarded as a result will go to our outdoor learning and forest schools project.

Multi-Faith Conference

Year 6 had a fascinating day with Mrs Knight and Marcus at the Multifaith conference on Thursday. They experienced a Jewish, Hindu, Islamic and Sikh workshop and took part in a multi-faith assembly. The conference was brilliant for raising our awareness and understanding of the different faiths and was a really worthwhile event.

On Monday afternoon, we look forward to welcoming our new Reception children, who are due to start in September, for their first session with us.

We send our good wishes to Mrs. Wood as she recovers from her operation and hope she gets well soon.
